Taxation (Cross-border Trade) Bill Second Reading (and remaining stages) [Lord Bates] 11th and 32nd Reports from the Delegated Powers Committee

Lord Tunnicliffe to move, as an amendment to the motion that the bill be now read a second time, at end to insert "but expresses grave concern that the Government agreed to accept, without detailed Parliamentary scrutiny, substantial measures that contradict both the United Kingdom's stated negotiating position and commitments already entered into with the European Union; and that the bill introduces additional barriers to securing a United Kingdom–European Union customs union."

†Baroness Kramer to move, as an amendment to the motion that the bill be now read a second time, at end to insert "but expresses profound concern that the proposals in the bill are based on the Government's flawed commitment to leave the single market and Customs Union, that the Government have failed to produce a comprehensive economic assessment of the consequences for the United Kingdom's economy of being outside the Customs Union, that they have sought to limit the role of Parliament, and in particular the role of this House, in the revision and scrutinising of the bill, and that they have failed to provide an opportunity for the people of the United Kingdom to have a vote, prior to the United Kingdom's departure from the European Union, on the terms of the new relationship between the United Kingdom and the European Union."

Baroness D'Souza to ask Her Majesty's Government what plans they have to review United Kingdom assistance to Afghanistan; and what assessment they have made of the prospects for peace in that country. (1½ hours)
