Select Committee Reports awaiting a Government response after two months

The Government has undertaken to respond in writing to the reports of select committees, if possible, within two months of publication. Only in exceptional circumstances should a response be deferred for more than six months after the report's publication. If it appears likely that a response may be received later than two months after the date of publication, the department concerned should write to the Committee explaining the reasons and indicating the likely timetable

European Union Committee Brexit: movement of people in the cultural sector (19th Report, HL Paper 182), (response due 26 September, no further date agreed for a response [Department for Digital, Culture, Media and Sport])
