Future Business

Wednesday 5 December 2018 at 11.00am

The following two motions are expected to be debated together:

The Lord Privy Seal (Baroness Evans of Bowes Park) to move that this House, for the purposes of section 13(1)(c) of the European Union (Withdrawal) Act 2018, takes note of the negotiated withdrawal agreement laid before the House on Monday 26 November 2018 with the title 'Agreement on the withdrawal of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland from the European Union and the European Atomic Energy Community' and the framework for the future relationship laid before the House on Monday 26 November 2018 with the title 'Political Declaration setting out the framework for the future relationship between the European Union and the United Kingdom'.

Baroness Smith of Basildon to move that this House, while noting that it is for the House of Commons to determine the matter, considers that a no deal outcome to negotiations under Article 50(2) of the Treaty on European Union must be emphatically rejected, and regrets that Her Majesty's Government have negotiated a withdrawal agreement and political declaration that would do grave damage to the future economic prosperity, internal security and global influence of the United Kingdom.

Oral Questions at 3.00pm

Baroness D'Souza to ask Her Majesty's Government what plans they have to support and provide resources for reconstruction programmes in Syria.

Baroness Randerson to ask Her Majesty's Government what steps they are taking to raise awareness among the general public of the health impacts of emissions from diesel vehicles.

Lord Pearson of Rannoch to ask Her Majesty's Government whether section 29J of the Public Order Act 1986 remains in force, and if so, what is the basis in statute for the offence of religious hate speech.

†The Lord Bishop of St Albans to ask Her Majesty's Government what steps they are taking to encourage oil and gas companies to link executive pay to carbon emission reduction targets.

It is expected that the debate on the motions in the names of the Lord Privy Seal and Baroness Smith of Basildon will continue.

Thursday 6 December 2018 at 11.00am

Lord Balfe to ask Her Majesty's Government what assessment they have made of the effect of the United Kingdom's withdrawal from the European External Action Service, as a result of leaving the European Union, on their ability to (1) shape European Union foreign policy, and (2) project their foreign policy objectives in countries that are not members of the European Union.

Baroness Cox to ask Her Majesty's Government whether they plan to revise their assessment of the situation in northern and central belt states of Nigeria, following the report by local church leaders of the killing and maiming of 6,000 civilians by Fulani Islamist terrorists between January and June and figures from the Office of the United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees that almost two million people have been displaced by jihadist attacks.

Lord Foster of Bath to ask Her Majesty's Government what consideration they have given to the possibility of a flexible Value Added Tax regime to allow digital publications to be zero-rated; and whether they intend to make use of this flexibility should it come into effect.

Topical oral question. Ballot to be drawn at 1pm on Tuesday 4 December.

It is expected that the debate on the motions of 5 December in the names of the Lord Privy Seal and Baroness Smith of Basildon will continue.

Monday 10 December 2018 at 2.30pm

Baroness Berridge to ask Her Majesty's Government what is their assessment of the publication produced by the All-Party Parliamentary Group for International Freedom of Religion or Belief, Commentary on the state of freedom of religion or belief; and what steps they are taking to mark International Human Rights Day.

Lord Curry of Kirkharle to ask Her Majesty's Government what action they are taking to support the release of political prisoners held without charge in Sudan and South Sudan; and, pending any release, what representations they are making to the relevant authorities for such prisoners to be allowed visits by their families and support agencies.

Viscount Hanworth to ask Her Majesty's Government what plans they have for the future of nuclear power in the United Kingdom following the collapse of the NuGen consortium, and given the continuing uncertainty regarding the project for a small modular reactor.

Lord Addington to ask Her Majesty's Government what steps they are taking to ensure that computers provided under the Disabled Students' Allowance scheme have sufficient capacity to run assistive technology and modern operating systems effectively. [I]

It is expected that the debate on the motions of 5 December in the names of the Lord Privy Seal and Baroness Smith of Basildon will continue, and that it will conclude.

Tuesday 11 December 2018 at 2.30pm

Lord Beith to ask Her Majesty's Government what work is being carried out within the National Health Service to improve access to specialist services in areas which are remote from main hospitals.

Lord Bruce of Bennachie to ask Her Majesty's Government what measures they propose to secure continued co-operation on international development programmes and funding in partnership with the European Union.

Lord Stunell to ask Her Majesty's Government what steps, if any, they plan to take to improve the energy performance of buildings as a contribution towards reducing carbon emissions and achieving the United Kingdom's climate change obligations.

Wednesday 12 December 2018 at 3.00pm

Lord Naseby to ask Her Majesty's Government with what organisations they have been working to ensure provision of serviced plots for self- and custom-built homes in order to meet social and other housing needs.

Lord Trees to ask Her Majesty's Government whether their recent trade deal to supply 50,000 lambs killed without stunning to Saudi Arabia is consistent with their commitment to maintain animal welfare standards after Brexit.

Division No. 1

Baroness Jones of Moulsecoomb moved amendment 1, in clause 1, page 1, line 8, to leave out “is supportive of” and insert “supports”. The House divided:

Contents	93
Not-contents	198

Division No. 2

Lord Rosser moved amendment 15, in clause 4, page 3, line 19, at end to insert:

“(3A) A person does not commit an offence under this section of entering, or remaining in, a designated area where:

- (a) the person enters, or remains in, a designated area involuntarily, or
- (b) the person enters, or remains in, a designated area for or in connection with one or more of the purposes mentioned in subsection (3B).

(3B) The purposes are:

- (a) providing aid of a humanitarian nature;
- (b) satisfying an obligation to appear before a court or other body exercising judicial power;
- (c) carrying out work for the government of a country other than the United Kingdom (including service in or with the country’s armed forces);
- (d) carrying out work for the United Nations or an agency of the United Nations;
- (e) carrying out work as a journalist;
- (f) attending the funeral of a relative or visiting a relative who is terminally ill;
- (g) providing care for a relative who is unable to care for themselves without such assistance.

(3C) But a person does not commit an offence of entering or remaining in a designated area by virtue of subsection (3A)(b) only if:

- (a) the person enters or remains in the area exclusively for or in connection with one or more of the purposes mentioned in subsection (3B), or
- (b) in a case where the person enters or remains in the area for or in connection with any other purpose or purposes (in addition to one or more of the purposes mentioned in subsection (3B)), the other purpose or purposes provide a reasonable excuse for doing so under subsection (2).

(3D) The Secretary of State may by regulations add a purpose to or remove a purpose from subsection (3B).

DIVISIONS

(3E) Regulations under subsection (3D) may not be made unless a draft of the instrument has been laid before and approved by a resolution of each House of Parliament.

(3F) For the purposes of subsection (3B):

(a) the reference to the provision of aid of a humanitarian nature does not include the provision of aid in contravention of internationally recognised principles and standards applicable to the provision of humanitarian aid;

(b) references to the carrying out of work do not include the carrying out of any act which constitutes an offence in a part of the United Kingdom or would do so if the act occurred in a part of the United Kingdom.”
