Select Committee Reports awaiting a Government response after two months

The Government has undertaken to respond in writing to the reports of select committees, if possible, within two months of publication. Only in exceptional circumstances should a response be deferred for more than six months after the report's publication. If it appears likely that a response may be received later than two months after the date of publication, the department concerned should write to the Committee explaining the reasons and indicating the likely timetable.

European Union Committee Brexit: the customs challenge (20th Report, HL Paper 187), (response due 20 November 2018, no further date agreed for a response) [Department for Exiting the European Union]

European Union Committee Brexit: the Withdrawal Agreement and Political Declaration (24th Report, HL Paper 245), (response due 5 February, no further date agreed for a response) [Department for Exiting the European Union]
