†Viscount Waverley to ask Her Majesty's Government what plans they have to establish a system to inform parliamentarians when (1) the governments, or (2) the legislatures, of other countries (a) debate, or (b) make statements on, their bilateral relations with the United Kingdom. (2 September)

Questions for Written Answer

Tabled on 4 September and due for answer by 18 September.

Baroness Altmann to ask Her Majesty's Government, with respect to the National Statistics data published in April, which estimated the total cost of pension tax relief in respect of registered pension schemes for the year ending 5 April 2018 at £36.3 billion including £4.3 billion in tax relief on employee contributions to occupational pension schemes, (1) what is the estimated figure of gross pension contributions on which this figure was based, and (2) what specific assumptions were made as to the rates of tax applicable in arriving at the figure of £4.3 billion; and whether these assumptions included that all employees making contributions to occupational schemes receive the full tax relief to which they are entitled, including those contributing to net pay pension schemes. HL17699

Baroness Altmann to ask Her Majesty's Government what estimate they have made of the amount of tax relief forgone in net pay pension schemes by workers earning below the personal tax threshold while contributing to workplace pensions in the past three tax years. HL17700

Lord Alton of Liverpool to ask Her Majesty's Government what assessment they have made of reports that school buildings in Pakistan funded by the Department for International Development (DfID) are not fit for purpose, leaving children learning in makeshift classrooms; and that most of the schools covered by this DfID programme are potentially at risk from structural design flaws which put them at risk of collapse during earthquakes. HL17701

Lord Alton of Liverpool to ask Her Majesty's Government what action they took in response to reports in 2016 which highlighted concerns about the Department for International Development's Pakistan educational development programmes. HL17702

Lord Alton of Liverpool to ask Her Majesty's Government how much they paid to (1) the Department for International Development's Special Representative on Education in Pakistan, and (2) other education and management consultancies dealing with education projects in Pakistan, between 2011 and 2015. HL17703

Lord Alton of Liverpool to ask Her Majesty's Government what plans the Department for International Development has to (1) put greater emphasis on problems identified during the annual reporting process, (2) ensure that greater scrutiny is given to the work of consultancy companies and local contractors, (3) give greater priority to monitoring local progress and quality delivery on the ground, and (4) give greater weight to concerns expressed by Pakistanis working on the ground in rural areas of Punjab and Khyber Pakhtunkhwa in future programmes. HL17704

Lord Alton of Liverpool to ask Her Majesty's Government what assessment they have made of the report by the Refugee and the No Accommodation Network Missing the Safety Net, published on 4 September, in particular the finding that the Home Office is frequently failing to provide vulnerable people, including pregnant women, with the asylum support to which they are entitled. HL17705

Lord Bradshaw to ask Her Majesty's Government whether they intend to encourage Network Rail to generate the electricity it consumes from standby electricity generators for its signalling instalments from renewable energy sources. HL17706

Lord Bradshaw to ask Her Majesty's Government how many spot checks were made by the enforcement agencies on large goods vehicle and heavy goods vehicle emissions in each of the last three years for which figures are available. HL17707

Lord Bradshaw to ask Her Majesty's Government what assessment they have made of research by vehicle manufacturers on road building or re-surfacing contractors to reduce the noise from vehicles passing along main roads. HL17708

Lord Bradshaw to ask Her Majesty's Government whether they are taking any action to prevent damage to footpaths and bridleways by off road vehicles and trail bikes; and if so, what this action entails.

HL17709

Lord Campbell of Pittenweem to ask Her Majesty's Government what steps they are taking to maintain the 2015 multilateral nuclear agreement with Iran.

HL17710

Baroness Cox to ask Her Majesty's Government, further to the Written Answer by Lord Ahmad of Wimbledon on 31 July (HL17137), what considerations led them to adopt the positions that "the Assad regime has lost all legitimacy" and that they "have no intention of encouraging the Global Coalition to cooperate with its security forces"; whether they have applied similar considerations in developing their position on Sudan; and, if so, how those considerations were applied to their decision to engage in strategic dialogue with the regime there.

HL17711

Baroness Cox to ask Her Majesty's Government what assessment they have made of (1) the impact of the EU's sanctions on Syria since their imposition in 2012 on (a) the behaviour of the government of Syria, and (b) the economic wellbeing of the population of Syria; (2) the likely impact of those sanctions in the near future; and (3) the effectiveness of measures seeking to deprive Syria of access to oil.

HL17712

Baroness Cox to ask Her Majesty's Government, further to the Written Answer by Lord Ahmad of Wimbledon on 31 July (HL17137), what was the basis for reaching their conclusions that (1) the Assad regime has lost all legitimacy, and (2) they will not encourage the Global Coalition to cooperate with the Assad regime's security forces; whether they have applied similar considerations in developing their position on Sudan; and if so, how those considerations were applied in their decision to engage in strategic dialogue with the regime in Sudan.

HL17713

Lord Goodlad to ask Her Majesty's Government what recent discussions they have had with the government of Zimbabwe about pension arrears owed to former Crown servants; and what was the outcome of those discussions.

HL17714

Lord Goodlad to ask Her Majesty's Government what plans they have for the future of smart motorways.

HL17715

Lord Hunt of Kings Heath to ask Her Majesty's Government what plans they have to direct the Clinical Commissioning Groups in South East London to withdraw their prohibition on single women receiving fertility treatment on the NHS as laid out in the South East London Treatment Access Policy Document 2019/20.

HL17716

Lord Hunt of Kings Heath to ask Her Majesty's Government what assessment they have made of the statement contained in page 34 of the South East London Treatment Access Policy Document 2019/20 that "because of the known disadvantage that providing assisted conception to a single woman would cause both the child and the mother, funding of assisted conception for single women is not available".

HL17717

Lord Hunt of Kings Heath to ask Her Majesty's Government what plans they have to instruct the Clinical Commissioning Groups in South East London to publish the evidence it relied on in developing its policy of not providing fertility treatment to single women.

HL17718

Lord Hunt of Kings Heath to ask Her Majesty's Government what assessment they have made of the board members of the Clinical Commissioning Groups in South East London.

HL17719

HL17724

Baroness Masham of Ilton to ask Her Majesty's Government how many (1) males, and (2) females, aged (a) 16–23, (b) 24–29, (c) 30–34, and (d) 34 and over, were (i) killed, (ii) seriously injured, and (iii) received minor injuries, as a result of wearing a seat belt incorrectly in each of the last two years for which information is available. HL17725

Baroness Masham of Ilton to ask Her Majesty's Government how much they have spent on advertising the dangers of wearing a seat belt incorrectly in each of the last two years for which information is available. HL17726

Baroness Masham of Ilton to ask Her Majesty's Government what information they hold on the types of injuries associated with wearing a seat belt incorrectly. HL17727

Baroness Masham of Ilton to ask Her Majesty's Government what assessment they have made of whether wearing a seat belt incorrectly is as dangerous as not wearing a seat belt at all; and if so, whether they will include this information in future advertising on the wearing of seat belts. HL17728

Lord Taylor of Warwick to ask Her Majesty's Government whether they intend to remain closely aligned with the EU regulatory framework on (1) environmental protection, and (2) food safety standards. HL17729

Lord Taylor of Warwick to ask Her Majesty's Government what assessment they have made of a joint-letter from a group of worldwide business federations coordinated by the United States Chamber of Commerce warning against the impact that a no-deal Brexit could have on global trade as reported by The Times on 4 September. HL17730

Lord Taylor of Warwick to ask Her Majesty's Government what plans they have to introduce legislation that recognises animals as sentient beings after Brexit. HL17731

Lord Taylor of Warwick to ask Her Majesty's Government what plans they have for rationing to prevent potential food and water shortages post-Brexit. HL17732

Baroness Tonge to ask Her Majesty's Government what assessment they have made of reports that Israeli Interior Minister Aryeh Deri has decided to withhold the body of Nassim Abu Roumi from East Jerusalem to exchange it for the body of an Israeli soldier held in Gaza; and whether they intend to take any action in response to those reports. HL17733

Baroness Tonge to ask Her Majesty's Government what representations they will make to the government of Israel regarding the breaking up of a Palestinian soccer team in East Jerusalem on the grounds that the location is under Israeli sovereignty. HL17734

2 Delegated Powers and Regulatory Reform

The following Report from the Select Committee was made and ordered to be printed:

Report on the following bill:

European Union (Withdrawal) (No. 6) Bill. (61st Report, HL Paper 418)

Public Business

3 Brexit: food standards A question was asked by Lord Carrington and answered by Lord Gardiner of Kimble.

4 Saudi Arabia: human rights A question was asked by Baroness Anelay of St Johns and answered by Lord Ahmad of Wimbledon.

5 Personal health care budgets: Sheffield A question was asked by Lord Blunkett and answered by Baroness Blackwood of North Oxford.

6 Bury Football Club A question was asked by Lord Greaves and answered by Baroness Barran.

7 Business of the House Baroness Smith of Basildon moved, further to the resolution of the House of 28 January that Her Majesty's Government should provide sufficient time for this House to ensure the timely passage of legislation necessary to implement any deal or proposition that has commanded the support of the majority of the House of Commons, that:

(1) Standing Order 40(3) to 40(9) (Arrangement of the Order Paper) be dispensed with to allow proceedings on any bill sent from the House of Commons relating to the United Kingdom's exit from the European Union to start immediately after oral questions on Thursday, 5 September and immediately after Prayers on Friday, 6 September and to take priority over other public business.

(2) Standing Order 46 (No two stages of a Bill to be taken on one day) be dispensed with to allow more than one stage of any such bill to be taken on one day.

(3) Proceedings up to and including Second Reading and commitment of the bill, so far as not already concluded, shall be brought to a conclusion at 7pm on Thursday, 5 September and if the bill is read a second time then, notwithstanding Standing Order 47(1) (Commitment of Bills), it shall stand committed to a Committee of the whole House without Question put.

(4) Committee stage, Report stage, Third Reading and Passing of the bill, so far as not already concluded, shall be brought to a conclusion at 5pm on Friday, 6 September.

(5) At the times stated in paragraphs (3) and (4):

a) there shall be no further debate;

b) if the mover of any motion or amendment before the House or Committee does not ask leave to withdraw, or if leave to withdraw is refused, the Question shall be put and decided immediately without further amendment or debate;

c) any further amendments shall be disposed of immediately without further amendment or debate and may be agreed only by unanimity;

d) any further Questions necessary to conclude proceedings under the relevant paragraph shall be put and decided immediately without further amendment or debate; and

e) notwithstanding Standing Order 29 (No speaking after Question put), no point of order is admitted.

(6) Amendments to the bill may be tabled only as follows:

a) for Committee stage, between First Reading and 30 minutes after the motion for Second Reading is agreed to;

b) for Report stage, for 30 minutes after the bill is reported from Committee or, if applicable, after the bill as amended in Committee is available in the Printed Paper Office;

c) for Third Reading, for 30 minutes after the end of consideration on Report or, if applicable, after the bill as amended on Report is available in the Printed Paper Office.

(7) The member in charge of the bill may propose adjournment during pleasure.

(8) If at the time stated in paragraph (4) a stage has not begun, it shall begin and be brought to a conclusion immediately without debate and no amendments shall be considered.

(9) The following Questions on the bill shall be deemed agreed to immediately without Question put:

- a) House to be in Committee on the bill;
- b) Report received;
- c) Third Reading;
- d) Adjournment during pleasure.

(10) No motion related to the bill, or in the course of proceedings on the bill, or to resume or adjourn the House, and not provided for in this motion, shall be tabled or moved, save one to amend this motion in the name of the Leader of the Opposition. Proceedings on any further Business of the House motion related to this bill, so far as not already concluded, shall be brought to a conclusion one hour after they commence and paragraph (5) shall apply.

(11) If proceedings under paragraph (3) have not been concluded at the sitting of Thursday 5 September, a further motion in the name of the Leader of the Opposition to provide for the disposal of the Questions required to conclude proceedings on the bill shall be entered as first business on Friday, 6 September and decided immediately without amendment or debate. Then Lord Forsyth of Drumlean moved under Standing Order 62 (Committees of the Whole House) that this House resolves itself into a Committee of the Whole House on the motion the name of Baroness Smith of Basildon. After debate, a motion that the question be now put was agreed to (see division 1). Then the motion was disagreed to (see division 2).

Then Baroness Deech moved, as an amendment to the motion, to leave out from “move” to the end and insert “notwithstanding the resolution of the House of 28 January that Her Majesty’s Government should provide sufficient time for this House to ensure the timely passage of legislation necessary to implement any deal or proposition that has commanded the support of the majority of the House of Commons, considers that a guillotine motion is entirely contrary to the spirit and practice of the House of Lords”. A motion that the question be now put was agreed to (see division 3). Then the amendment was disagreed to (see division 4).

Then Lord True moved, as an amendment to the motion, to leave out from first “Commons” to the end and insert “that this House believes that any Bill that has been allowed only one day’s consideration in the House of Commons, should receive full and unfettered consideration in the House of Lords and in the interests of orderly Parliamentary scrutiny deplores any attempt to curtail consideration in both Houses.” After debate, the amendment was withdrawn.

Then Lord Marlesford, on behalf of Lord True, moved, as an amendment to the motion, after first “Commons” to insert “, and in recognition of the fact that the vote of 17.4 million people in the 2016 referendum to leave the European Union is no longer relevant and may be ignored or further deferred”. After debate, a motion that the question be now put was agreed to (see division 5). Then the amendment was disagreed to (see division 6).

The House adjourned. The House resumed.

Then Baroness Noakes, on behalf of Lord True, moved, as an amendment to the motion in the name of Baroness Smith of Basildon, after first “Commons” to insert “, and believing that the United Kingdom’s departure from the European Union on 31 October should be prevented”. A motion that the question be now put was agreed to (see division 7). Then the amendment was disagreed to (see division 8).

Then Lord Framlingham, on behalf of Lord True, moved, as an amendment to the motion in the name of Baroness Smith of Basildon, after first “Commons” to insert “, and in recognition of the fact that promises made in election manifestoes in 2017 to ensure the United Kingdom’s departure from the European Union are not binding”. A motion that the question be now put was agreed to (see division 9). Then the amendment was disagreed to (see division 10).

Then Lord True moved, as an amendment to the motion in the name of Baroness Smith of Basildon, after first “Commons” to insert “, and only once any current legal proceedings relating to prorogations in the English courts have been concluded”. A motion that the question be now put was moved and withdrawn. The amendment was disagreed to (see division 11).

Then Baroness Noakes, on behalf of Lord True, moved, as an amendment to the motion in the name of Baroness Smith of Basildon, after first “Commons” to insert “, and only once current legal proceedings relating to prorogations in the Scottish courts have been concluded”. Then the amendment was disagreed to (see division 12).

Then Baroness Noakes, on behalf of Lord True, moved, as an amendment to the motion in the name of Baroness Smith of Basildon, after first “Commons” to insert “, and only once current legal proceedings relating to prorogations in the Northern Irish courts have been concluded”. The amendment was disagreed to (see division 13).

Then Lord True moved, as an amendment to the motion in the name of Baroness Smith of Basildon, after “House of Commons, that” to insert “an urgent report be requested from the Constitution Committee on the propriety of the use of a guillotine motion, and should that Committee recommend its use, that”. A motion that the question be now put was agreed to (see division 14). Then the amendment was disagreed to (see division 15).

Then Lord Framlingham, on behalf of Lord True, moved, as an amendment to the motion in the name of Baroness Smith of Basildon, after “House of Commons, that” to insert “an urgent report be requested from the Procedure Committee on the propriety of the use of a guillotine motion, and should that Committee recommend its use, that”. The amendment was negated.

Then Baroness Noakes, on behalf of Lord True, moved, as an amendment to the motion in the name of Baroness Smith of Basildon, leave out paragraph (1) and insert—

“(1) Standing Order 40(4) to 40(9) (Arrangements of the Order Paper) be dispensed with in relation to any bill sent from the House of Commons relating to the United Kingdom’s exit from the European Union.”

The amendment was disagreed to (see division 16).

Then Baroness Noakes, on behalf of Lord True, moved, as an amendment to the motion in the name of Baroness Smith of Basildon, leave out paragraph (1) and insert—

“(1) Standing Order 40(3) and 40(5) to 40(9) (Arrangements of the Order Paper) be dispensed with in relation to any bill sent from the House of Commons relating to the United Kingdom’s exit from the European Union.”

The amendment was disagreed to (see division 17). Then, after debate, further debate on the motion was adjourned.

8 European Union (Withdrawal) (No. 6) Bill A bill to make further provision in connection with the period for negotiations for withdrawing from the European Union was brought from the Commons. It was read a first time and ordered to be printed. (HL Bill 202)

The House adjourned at 1.29am on Thursday 5 September until 11am the same day.

Ed Ollard
Clerk of the Parliaments
