Select Committee Reports awaiting a Government response after two months

The Government has undertaken to respond in writing to the reports of select committees, if possible, within two months of publication. Only in exceptional circumstances should a response be deferred for more than six months after the report's publication. If it appears likely that a response may be received later than two months after the date of publication, the department concerned should write to the Committee explaining the reasons and indicating the likely timetable.

European Union Committee Brexit: the Withdrawal Agreement and Political Declaration (24th Report, HL Paper 245), (response due 5 February, no further date agreed for a response) [Department for Exiting the European Union]

European Union Committee Beyond Brexit: how to win friends and influence people (35th Report, HL Paper 322), (response due 25 May, no further date agreed for a response) [Department for Exiting the European Union]

Economic Affairs Committee Social care funding: time to end a national scandal (7th Report, HL Paper 392), (response due 4 September, no further date agreed for a response) [Department of Health and Social Care]
