8 Regulation of Investigatory Powers (Criminal Conduct Authorisations) (Amendment) Order 2021

Baroness D'Souza moved that this House regrets that the Regulation of Investigatory Powers (Criminal Conduct Authorisations) (Amendment) Order 2021 (SI 2021/601) does not provide adequate safeguards on the actions of covert agents, as the Covert Human Intelligence Sources (Criminal Conduct) Act 2021 failed to include express limits on the crimes covert agents can commit; and calls on Her Majesty's Government to amend the Act to provide proper limits on, and oversight of, crimes committed by covert agents. After debate, the motion was withdrawn.

The House adjourned at 9.35pm until Wednesday 13 October at 3.00pm.

Simon Burton
Clerk of the Parliaments

Skills and Post-16 Education Bill [HL]

Division No. 1

Lord Watson of Invergowrie moved amendment 11, in clause 1, page 2, line 21, to leave out subsection (6) and insert—

“(6) A “local skills improvement plan”, in relation to a specified area, means a plan which—

(a) is developed by an employer representative body in partnership with local authorities, including the Mayoral Combined Authorities and further education providers for the specified area,

(b) draws on the views of—

(i) employers operating within the specified area,

(ii) regional and local authorities, including the Mayoral Combined Authorities, within the specified area with specific reference to published plans and strategies which have been developed by these authorities to inform the distribution of funding and prioritisation of resources,

(iii) post-16 education providers active in the specified area, including schools, further education institutions, community learning providers, specialist designated institutions and universities, such sources of information on long-term national skills needs as the Secretary of State may specify, and any other evidence, to summarise the skills, capabilities or expertise that are, or may in the future be, required by people resident in the specified area, and

(c) identifies actions that relevant providers and other local bodies can take regarding any post-16 technical education or training that they provide so as to address the requirements mentioned in paragraph (b).”
