Select Committee Reports awaiting a Government response after two months

The Government has undertaken to respond in writing to the reports of select committees, if possible, within two months of publication. Only in exceptional circumstances should a response be deferred for more than six months after the report's publication. If it appears likely that a response may be received later than two months after the date of publication, the department concerned should write to the Committee explaining the reasons and indicating the likely timetable.

Economic Affairs Committee Social care funding: time to end a national scandal (7th Report, Session 2017–19, HL Paper 392), (response due 4 September 2019, no further date agreed for a response) [Department of Health and Social Care]

Constitution Committee Revision of the Cabinet Manual (6th Report, HL Paper 34), (response due 8 September 2021, no further date agreed for a response) [Cabinet Office]

Public Services Committee Children in crisis: the role of public services in overcoming child vulnerability (1st Report, HL Paper 95), (response due 19 January, response expected 31 January) [Department for Education]

Youth Unemployment Committee Skills for every young person (HL Paper 98), (response due 26 January, no further date agreed for a response) [Department for Education and Department for Work and Pensions]
