Identity and Language (Northern Ireland) Bill [HL] Third Reading [Lord Caine]

Restoration and Renewal The Lord Privy Seal (Baroness Evans of Bowes Park) to move that this House

(1) reaffirms its commitment to preserving the Palace of Westminster for future generations and ensuring the safety of all those who work in and visit the Palace, now and in the future;

(2) notwithstanding the Resolution of 31 January 2018, welcomes the report from the House of Commons and House of Lords Commissions proposing a new mandate for the Restoration and Renewal works and a new governance structure to support them;

(3) accordingly endorses the recommendations set out in the Commissions' report; and

(4) in consequence, approves the establishment of a joint department of the two Houses, under the terms of the Parliament (Joint Departments) Act 2007.

Lord Blunkett to move, as an amendment to the above motion, at the end insert:

“(5) reaffirms its commitment that the client function for the Restoration and Renewal programme, in the form of the new joint department, must have regard to

(a) the need to ensure that—

(i) any place in which either House of Parliament is located while the Parliamentary building works are carried out; and

(ii) (after completion of those works) all parts of the Palace of Westminster used by people working in it or open to people visiting it,

are accessible to people with disabilities;

(b) the need to ensure that the Parliamentary building works are carried out with a view to facilitating improved public engagement with Parliament and participation in the democratic process (especially by means of remote access to Parliament's educational and outreach facilities and programmes); and

(c) the need to ensure that opportunities to secure economic or other benefits of the Parliamentary building works are available in all areas of the United Kingdom.”

If the Supply and Appropriation (Main Estimates) Bill is brought for the Commons, and the second motion in the name of the Lord Privy Seal on Monday 11 July is agreed to, it is expected that the remaining stages will be taken.

If the Energy (Oil and Gas) Profits Levy Bill is brought from the Commons, and the first motion in the name of the Lord Privy Seal on Monday 11 July is agreed to, it is expected that the Bill will be read a second time and remaining stages will be taken.

Select Committee Report awaiting a Government response after two months

The Government has undertaken to respond in writing to the reports of select committees, if possible, within two months of publication. Only in exceptional circumstances should a response be deferred for more than six months after the report's publication. If it appears likely that a response may be received later than two months after the date of publication, the department concerned should write to the Committee explaining the reasons and indicating the likely timetable.

Constitution Committee Respect and Co-operation: Building a Stronger Union for the 21st century (10th Report, Session 2021–22, HL Paper 142), (response due 20 March, no further date agreed for a response) [Department for Levelling Up, Housing and Communities]

COVID-19 Committee Living in a COVID World: A Long-term Approach to Resilience and Wellbeing (3rd Report, Session 2021–22, HL Paper 117), (response due 16 May, no further date agreed for a response) [Department for Levelling Up, Housing and Communities]
