Conduct of Employment Agencies and Employment Businesses (Amendment) Regulations 2022

Lord Callanan to move that the draft Regulations laid before the House on 27 June be approved. Special attention drawn to the instrument by the Secondary Legislation Scrutiny Committee, 7th and 9th Reports (Dinner break business)

Lord Collins of Highbury to move, as an amendment to the above motion, at the end insert “but that this House regrets that the Regulations have been introduced without required or sufficient consultation, are opposed by employer and employee organisations, will do little to address the trained workforce shortfalls, could put workers’ safety at risk, will harm industrial relations, and may breach international law; further regrets that the associated Liability of Trade Unions in Proceedings in Tort (Increase of Limits on Damages) Order 2022 is unnecessary, as there are few if any occasions on which damages have been claimed, and an increase on the cap by 400 per cent is a threat that may inhibit the legitimate exercise of the right to strike; and concludes that the two instruments are simply a political exercise to deflect from the failure of Her Majesty’s Government to engage meaningfully with the organisations affected to resolve the disputes”.

Grand Committee in the Moses Room at 3.45pm
