Lord Clement-Jones to ask Her Majesty’s Government, further to the statement in the policy document Ambitious, Safe and Responsible - Our approach to the delivery of AI-enabled capability in Defence, published on 15 June, that there must be “context appropriate human involvement in weapons which identify, select and attack targets”, what plans they have to elaborate on the concept of “context appropriate human involvement” to ensure that relevant officers in (1) the Ministry of Defence, and (2) HM Armed Forces, have operational guidance on the acceptability of particular weapons, practices and uses. HL2086

Lord Clement-Jones to ask Her Majesty’s Government, further to the statement in policy document Ambitious, Safe and Responsible: Our approach to the delivery of AI enabled capability in Defence, published on 15 June, that global governance for autonomous weapons systems is “a difficult task”, how they plan to respond strategically to identified challenges of global governance in this area; and, in any such strategic response, how they intend to fulfil the aims set out in the Integrated Review of Security, Defence, Development and Foreign Policy, published on 16 March 2021, in relation to international legal, ethical and regulatory standards on responsible development and use of artificial intelligence. HL2087

Lord Clement-Jones to ask Her Majesty’s Government what mechanisms they are considering for compliance or oversight of the use of artificial intelligence in defence; and, in particular, whether mechanisms they are considering include (1) an internal artificial intelligence regulator, (2) the conversion of the principles included in the Defence Artificial Intelligence Strategy, published on 15 June, to specific standards and procedures, and (3) a means to ensure that weapons systems developed, acquired or deployed by the Ministry of Defence comply with any such standards and procedures. HL2088

Lord Clement-Jones to ask Her Majesty’s Government, further to the remarks by the Minister of State at the Ministry of Defence on 18 July (HC Deb col 688) that “autonomy is increasingly the key to the successful generation of overwhelming force in the battle space” and that “a more lethal force—even a bigger force—does not necessarily acquire more workforce in the future”, what assessment they have made of (1) the compatibility of these remarks with the answer by Baroness Goldie on 1 November 2021 (HL Deb, col 995) that “UK Armed Forces do not use systems that employ lethal force without context-appropriate human involvement”, and (2) the implications of these remarks for risks of strategic instability. HL2089

Lord Clement-Jones to ask Her Majesty's Government what plans, if any, they have (1) to list, (2) to preserve, and (3) to restore, buildings of significance in the fight for women's suffrage so that these places are not lost for future generations; and what assessment they made of the challenges faced by those seeking to save Dorset Hall, the former home of suffragette Rose Lamartine Yates. HL2090

Lord Clement-Jones to ask Her Majesty's Government what plans, if any, they have made for national celebrations of the 100th anniversary of full enfranchisement in 2028. HL2091

Lord De Mauley to ask Her Majesty's Government, further to the 'Quarterly service personnel statistics 1 April 2022', what are the figures for reserve personnel, divided by service into (1) officers, and (2) other ranks, and by (a) strength, (b) inflow, and (c) outflow. HL2092

Lord De Mauley to ask Her Majesty's Government, further to the 'Quarterly service personnel statistics 1 April 2022', when the quarterly figures ceased showing reserve officers and other ranks separately; and why they continue to do so for regulars but not reserves. HL2093

Lord De Mauley to ask Her Majesty's Government when they intend to publish their response to the report of the Reserve Forces Review 2030, published in May 2021. HL2094

Baroness Eaton to ask Her Majesty's Government what advice they have received on foetal viability from the British Association of Perinatal Medicine, the Royal College of Obstetricians and Gynaecologists, the Neonatal Nurses Association and the British Maternal and Foetal Medicine Society, who published joint guidelines in 2019 on caring for premature babies born from the 22nd week of gestation. HL2095

Baroness Eaton to ask Her Majesty's Government what steps they have taken to review the standard NHS practice of not using foetal painkillers before abortion; and what assessment they have made of the consistency of this approach with the current standard NHS practice of using foetal painkillers before foetal surgery from 19 weeks. HL2096

Lord Empey to ask Her Majesty's Government what assessment they have made of the provision of urgent short-term dry docking requirements for the Royal Navy, given the break down of HMS Prince of Wales. HL2097

Lord Empey to ask Her Majesty's Government what steps they are taking to ensure there are adequate dry docking facilities available within the UK to guarantee that the Royal Navy has access for urgent repairs. HL2098

Lord Empey to ask Her Majesty's Government what assessment they have made of the reliance on one dry dock facility in the UK by the Royal Navy given the susceptibility (1) to enemy attack, and (2) to occupation by other vessels. HL2099

Lord Field of Birkenhead to ask Her Majesty's Government what was the extent of quantitative easing for each quarter since the beginning of 2021. HL2100

Lord Field of Birkenhead to ask Her Majesty's Government, further to the Written Answer by Lord Kamall on 22 July (HL1593), how many (1) NHS, and (2) private, (a) licensed, and (b) unlicensed, prescriptions for cannabis medicines were made for severe treatment-resistant epilepsy in 2022. HL2101

Lord Field of Birkenhead to ask Her Majesty's Government how many homeless people have died on the street in each of the last five years. HL2102

Baroness Finlay of Llandaff to ask Her Majesty's Government what plans they have to revise their regulations on carbon dioxide alarms in accommodation to reflect the safety warning issued by the Office for Product Safety and Standards on 15 August on the use of gas grills. HL2103

Baroness Finlay of Llandaff to ask Her Majesty's Government what assessment they have made of the likely impact on NHS services of the removal, on 30 September, from the General Medical Council's Register of retired doctors who were granted temporary emergency registration to assist with the COVID-19 response. HL2104

Baroness Finlay of Llandaff to ask Her Majesty's Government to how many retired doctors the General Medical Council granted temporary emergency registration under section 18a of the Medical Act 1983; and how many of these retired doctors have applied for reinstatement to the Register of the General Medical Council to enable them to continue to practice after 30 September. HL2105
