Monday 4 December 2023 at 2.30pm

Lord Carter of Haslemere will be introduced.

Oral questions (40 minutes)

Baroness Brinton to ask His Majesty's Government what steps they are taking to ensure disabled air passengers are able to travel safely and with their equipment, including wheelchairs.

Lord Browne of Ladyton to ask His Majesty's Government, further to the Bletchley Declaration, what timescale they believe is appropriate for the introduction of further UK legislation to regulate artificial intelligence.

Lord Lilley to ask His Majesty's Government what representations they have received about the remarks by Gérald Darmanin, the French interior minister, that his government is prepared to deport asylum seekers deemed dangerous, in breach of rulings of the European Court of Human Rights.

Baroness Chakrabarti to ask His Majesty's Government how they propose to prioritise reducing violence against women and girls both domestically and internationally.

The following two motions are expected to be debated together:

Liaison The Senior Deputy Speaker to move that the Report from the Select Committee A committee on financial services regulation (6th Report, Session 2022–23, HL Paper 267) be agreed to.

Liaison The Senior Deputy Speaker to move that the Report from the Select Committee New committee activity in 2024 (1st Report, HL Paper 12) be agreed to.

Arbitration Bill [HL] (Law Commission Bill) Lord Bellamy to move that the bill be referred to a Second Reading Committee.

The following three motions are expected to be debated together:

Counter-Terrorism and Border Security Act 2019 (Port Examination Code of Practice) Regulations 2023 Lord Sharpe of Epsom to move that the draft Regulations laid before the House on 16 October be approved.

National Security Act 2023 (Consequential Amendments of Primary Legislation) Regulations 2023 Lord Sharpe of Epsom to move that the draft Regulations laid before the House on 16 October be approved.

National Security Act 2023 (Video Recording with Sound of Interviews and Associated Code of Practice) Regulations 2023 Lord Sharpe of Epsom to move that the draft Regulations laid before the House on 16 October be approved.

Baroness Lister of Burtersett to move that this House regrets that the Immigration and Nationality (Fees) (Amendment) (No. 2) Regulations 2023, which increase fees by above inflation for a range of immigration and nationality applications, will (1) increase financial barriers to children securing their rights to British citizenship, (2) cause other individuals to fall out of lawful immigration status and face significant debt and precarity, (3) increase the operational burden on the Home Office, and (4) damage the United Kingdom's economy; and calls on His Majesty's Government to consider and develop policies to support individuals, families, and businesses adversely affected by these changes. 55th Report from the Secondary Legislation Scrutiny Committee, Session 2022–23

Baroness Hoey to move that this House regrets that, while the Windsor Framework (Retail Movement Scheme: Public Health, Marketing and Organic Product Standards and Miscellaneous Provisions) Regulations 2023 give practical effect to provisions in EU Regulation 2023/1231 which lessen the disturbance caused by the Irish Sea border, (1) they do not remove the border or the need for expensive and disruptive customs and sanitary and phytosanitary paperwork, and border control posts, (2) Article 14 of EU Regulation 2023/1231 reserves the right for the European Union to reverse provisions afforded by these Regulations that make the border less burdensome, and (3) on both counts, these Regulations are associated with an initiative that violates the territorial integrity of the United Kingdom. 51st Report from the Secondary Legislation Scrutiny Committee, Session 2022–23

Plant Protection Products (Miscellaneous Amendments) Regulations 2023 Lord Harlech to move that the draft Regulations laid before the House on 23 October be approved. 1st Report from the Secondary Legislation Scrutiny Committee

Lord Berkeley to move that this House welcomes the contribution to passenger safety made by the Merchant Shipping (Counting and Registration of Persons on board Passenger Ships) (Amendment) Regulations 2023 but regrets the delay in the introduction of the regulations and that they do not cover passengers travelling on non-passenger ships. 49th Report from the Secondary Legislation Scrutiny Committee, Session 2022–23
