No. 14

Items marked † are new or have been altered.

Wednesday 4 September 2024 at 3.00pm

Baroness Hodge of Barking, and

Baroness Beckett will be introduced.

Oral questions (40 minutes)

*Lord Sikka to ask His Majesty's Government what assessment they have made of the possible links between social disorder in major cities, and economic and social policies.

*The Lord Bishop of London to ask His Majesty's Government what assessment they have made of the adequacy of funding arrangements for accessible and equitable palliative and end of life care.

*Lord Liddle to ask His Majesty's Government what plans they have to facilitate improved high-speed rail services between (1) London Euston and Manchester, and (2) on the West Coast Mainline north of Crewe.

*Baroness Neville-Rolfe to ask His Majesty's Government what assessment they have made of the political neutrality of Civil Service recruitment following recent appointments to Civil Service roles.

Business of the House The Lord Privy Seal (Baroness Smith of Basildon) to move that, in the event that the Budget Responsibility Bill has been brought from the Commons, Standing Order 44 (No two stages of a Bill to be taken on one day) be dispensed with on Monday 9 September to allow the Bill to be taken through its remaining stages that day.

Holocaust Memorial Bill Second Reading [Lord Khan of Burnley]

Baroness Deech to move, as an amendment to the motion that the bill be now read a second time, at end to insert "but this House regrets that the Bill fails to allow for a full appraisal and consultation on any preferred site for a Holocaust Memorial and Learning Centre; and that in preparing the bill the Government have failed to establish the true cost of the project or deal with issues of security around the Memorial".

If the bill is read a second time, Lord Khan of Burnley to move that the bill be committed to a Select Committee.
