The Government has undertaken to respond in writing to the reports of select committees, if possible, within two months of publication. Only in exceptional circumstances should a response be deferred for more than six months after the report's publication. If it appears likely that a response may be received later than two months after the date of publication, the department concerned should write to the Committee explaining the reasons and indicating the likely timetable.

Statutory Inquiries Committee Public inquiries: Enhancing public trust (HL Paper 9), (response due 16 November, no further date agreed for a response) [Cabinet Office]
