Baroness Prentis of Banbury, and †Lord Hart of Tenby will be introduced.

Oral questions (40 minutes)

Lord Cashman to ask His Majesty's Government what plans they have to sign and ratify Protocol 12 to the European Convention on Human Rights to promote the equality of all persons in the United Kingdom through a general prohibition of discrimination.

Baroness Rawlings to ask His Majesty's Government what plans they have for the BBC World Service in the long term.

Baroness Ritchie of Downpatrick to ask His Majesty's Government what assessment they have made of the draft Protection of Children Codes published by Ofcom on 24 April under the Online Safety Act 2023.

Lord Faulkner of Worcester to ask His Majesty's Government whether they are supporting the Campaign for Better Transport's proposals to create an international rail strategy to increase the usage of the Channel Tunnel from the existing 50 per cent for passengers and 10 per cent for freight.

The following two motions are expected to be debated together:

Allowances The Lord Privy Seal (Baroness Smith of Basildon) to move that:

(1) The Resolution of 27 March 2024 relating to the House of Lords allowance is amended as follows with effect from 1 June 2025.

(2) For paragraph 4 substitute—

“(4) The maximum daily amount payable to a Member should be £125.”

(3) For paragraph (7) substitute—

“(7) In relation to the year beginning with 1 April 2026, and each subsequent year beginning with 1 April—

(a) any formula or mechanism included in the IPSA determination for the year as a result of section 4A(4) of the Parliamentary Standards Act 2009 (adjustment of MPs' salaries) should be treated as applying for the purposes of adjusting for that year the amount of the allowance payable to a Member of this House, and

(b) accordingly, the amount of the allowance payable to a Member in respect of a day of attendance in that year should be—

(i) the amount obtained by applying the formula or mechanism to the amount payable by way of allowance (under paragraph 4 or this paragraph) in the previous year, or

(ii) where no formula or mechanism is included in the determination, the same amount payable by way of allowance (under paragraph 4 or this paragraph) in the previous year.”

(4) In respect of a day of attendance before 1 June 2025, the Resolution of 27 March 2024 relating to the House of Lords allowance continues to have effect without the amendments made by this Resolution.

London accommodation costs allowance The Lord Privy Seal (Baroness Smith of Basildon) to move that:

(1) Members of this House, except any Member who receives a salary under the Ministerial and other Salaries Act 1975 and the Chairman and Principal Deputy Chairman of Committees, should be entitled to an accommodation costs allowance in respect of each day of attendance on or after 1 June 2025 as provided for below.

(2) Members are eligible to claim the London accommodation costs allowance—

(a) if the Member's registered residential address is outside Greater London,

(b) the Member has a recorded attendance,

(c) as a contribution towards the costs of accommodation in Greater London incurred in staying overnight away from their registered residential address where it is necessary to do so for the purpose of attendance.

(3) "Attendance" means attendance—

(a) at a sitting of this House,

(b) at a meeting of a Committee of this House, or
(c) on such other Parliamentary business as may be determined by the House of Lords Commission.

(4) The daily amount payable to a Member should be £63.

(5) The daily amount can be claimed for each day of recorded attendance or each night which falls immediately before a day of recorded attendance.

(6) The provisions of this Resolution apply in accordance with guidance issued under the authority of the House of Lords Commission.

(7) In relation to the year beginning with 1 April 2026, and each subsequent year beginning with 1 April—

(a) any formula or mechanism included in the IPSA determination for the year as a result of section 4A(4) of the Parliamentary Standards Act 2009 (adjustment of MPs' salaries) should be treated as applying for the purposes of adjusting for that year the amount of the allowance payable to a Member of this House, and

(b) accordingly, the amount of the allowance payable to a Member in respect of a day of attendance in that year should be—

(i) the amount obtained by applying the formula or mechanism to the amount payable by way of allowance (under paragraph 4 or this paragraph) in the previous year, or

(ii) where no formula or mechanism is included in the determination, the same amount payable by way of allowance (under paragraph 4 or this paragraph) in the previous year.

8. In paragraph 7(a) “IPSA determination” means a determination under section 4(4) of the Parliamentary Standards Act 2009.

9. Any fraction of a pound in an amount obtained under paragraph 7(b)(i) should be rounded up to the nearest pound if the fraction is 50p or more, but otherwise should be disregarded.

Supplementary Daily Allowance The Lord Privy Seal (Baroness Smith of Basildon) to move that:

(1) Members of this House, except any Member who receives a salary under the Ministerial and other Salaries Act 1975 and the Chairman and Principal Deputy Chairman of Committees, may be entitled to a supplementary daily allowance after 1 April 2025 as the chair of a domestic committee of the House, or such other body, as may be determined from time to time by the House of Lords Commission.

(2) The amount of the allowance payable shall be the applicable rate of the daily allowance or the reduced daily allowance at the time.

(3) The maximum entitlement applicable for the supplementary daily allowance is 3 additional days per month provided that for any month the total number of days claimed for does not exceed the total number of sitting days of the House in that month.

(4) The provisions of this Resolution shall be applied in accordance with guidance issued under the authority of the House of Lords Commission.
